

You have been approached by a retail chain operating in the US.

They would like you to re-create the visualization, which is depicted on the following page:

Notes:

- State colours represent the average profit across the cities of that state
- Circle colours and sizes show the percent contribution of the profit of the respective city towards the overall profit of the state